

The Big Flight

This journey will blow your mind. From something as being a small journey to being stranded on a desert island. Read on to find more about this adventurous story. It will make you feel warm in the heart!

I was flying through the air doing what I had normally done for the past few years. My job is amazing, I get to see so many new places, each one better than the last. Also to top that all off I have the best pilot and co-pilot in the world! Always try to be good which is why I always get my oil paid for!

So anyway I was flying in the air thinking about what this new place would look like when all of a sudden black smoke started filling the sky. I had to think quick. I decide to take a crash landing, shooting towards the ground I went, trying my best to keep everyone safe. We soon hit the floor with a great big THUMP! Everything went dark for me and all I remember is falling down to the ground and then there was a big bang! I felt sick and rusty I had never felt so much disappointment in my life. In the background I could hear people saying things like: ‘ I am never taking my children on a plane like this again’ I felt so miserable.

We got some people out to try and fix me but nothing worked. My pilot, Eric had an amazing idea! He decided to tow me there. After a while they had got me, picked me up, and started towing me. We were now up and ready in the sky. After 2 1/2 hours we reached Denmark! They repaired me and polished me up and since that moment I have been...
