

Hannah's book recommendation for Katy by Jacqueline Wilson

I recommend the book, Katy, by Jacqueline Wilson because it is quite realistic and as soon as you start reading an imaginary force fixes your eyes on the pages and your mind lives in the world of the book. It is about a 12 year old girl who is the oldest of all her siblings. The author, Jacqueline Wilson, who is known for writing about ordinary children (usually girls) having a difficult life, definitely does this in this book! Firstly, when she was little, Katy's mum dies which a big blow for Katy. Then, another horrible accident happens which changes her life forever (I won't write it down because I don't want to spoil the story and it's one of the key events). I love not only this book, but all of the other books Jacqueline Wilson has written that I have read (such as the Hetty Feather series) and I would really recommend them for anyone who loves realistic stories about the lives of brave girls. I hope you enjoy it!
